

Contents

Preface	vii
CARSTEN WERGIN WITH STEFANIE AFFELDT Heritage Transformations in Virtual Space	1
ANA LUISA SÁNCHEZ LAWS Digital Significance	19
PAUL TURNBULL Restoring Dignity The Ethical and Technical Challenges of Creating Digital Resources for the Repatriation of Indigenous Australian Ancestral Remains	29
PAUL LONGLEY ARTHUR & ISABEL SMITH Digital Representations of Slavery in Australia Navigating Heritage, Identity and Power	47
FRIEDERIKE SCHMIDT Retracing the Mobile Object Digitising Biographies of Aboriginal Material Culture	63
ROMANY REAGAN Unlocking Heritage Stories How the Use of Audio Walks as Creative Public Engagement Expands Access to Site-Based Heritage to a Diverse and Globalised Audience	73
KIMBERLY COULTER Mediating Ecologies Cultivating Diplomacy, Destabilising Paradigms	91
POLLY LOHMANN Digitising from Scratch An Example from the Practise of a University Collection	103

Contents

AARON PATTEE Graph Databases for the Organisation and Analysis of Digital Heritage	123
VICTORIA HERCHE Mediating Traumatic Memory The Potential of Interactive Digital Migrant Fictions	139
MARIJKE VAN FAASSEN & RIK HOEKSTRA Storytelling, Identity, and Digitising Heritage	155
JANA KECK How Meaningful are Digital Humanities Projects When it Comes to Training Early-Career Scholars in Digital Literacy?	175
Abstracts	187
Notes on Contributors	195