About the Authors

Sandra P. Klevansky is a retired Director of the Heidelberg Graduate School for Physics and Department of Physics and Astronomy, and adjunct Professor for Theoretical Physics at Heidelberg University. Her interests have ranged from theoretical nuclear and particle physics to non-Hermitian formulations of quantum field theory.

Richard H. Lemmer (deceased) was Professor of Mathematical Physics at the University of the Witwatersrand in Johannesburg. His international career had many stations, one of the longer being 10 years at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), USA, before he returned to his country of birth, South Africa. He has made many significant contributions to nuclear and particle physics.
