
Table of Contents

Jan Scholz, Max Stille, Ines Weinrich

Introduction 1

Part I: Trajectories of Religious and Aesthetic Interpretations 29

Lore Knapp

Religious Experience as Aesthetic Experience 31

Annette Wilke

Classical Indian Aesthetics and rasa Theory: Observations on Embodied Rhetoric, Reader Response, and the Entanglement of Aesthetics and Religion in Hindu India 47

Omaira Abou-Bakr

“Bride of the Qur’ān”: An Aesthetic Reading of Sūrat ar-Raḥmān 91

Part II: Aesthetics of Islamic Sermons 107

Tahera Qutbuddin

A Sermon on Piety by Imam ‘Alī ibn Abī Ṭālib: How the Rhythm of the Classical Arabic Oration Tacitly Persuaded 109

Max Stille

Between the Numinous and the Melodramatic:
Poetics of Heightened Feelings in Bengali Islamic Sermons 125

Jan Scholz

Dramatic Islamic Preaching: A Close Reading of ‘Amr Khālid 149

Part III: Experiencing Religion in and through Literature... 171

Tony K. Stewart

Popular Sufi Narratives and the Parameters of the Bengali Imaginaire 173

Susanne Enderwitz

Religion into Literature: A Close Reading of ‘Abd al-Ḥakīm Qāsim’s
Novel Ayyām al-insān as-sab‘a (The Seven Days of Man) 197

Suzanne Pinckney Stetkevych

Rhetoric, Hybridity, and Performance in Medieval Arabic-Islamic Devotional Poetry: Al-Kāfiya al-Badīyya of Ṣafī ad-Dīn al-Ḥillī 207

Ines Weinrich

Strategies in Islamic Religious Oral Performance:
The Creation of Audience Response 233