

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Anja Bandau, Anne Brüske and Natascha Ueckmann INTRODUCTION – Reshaping Glocal Dynamics of the Caribbean	1
I. Academic and Artistic Approaches to ‘the Caribbean’	29
Mimi Sheller Caribbean Constellations and Mobility Justice	31
Corinne Mence-Caster Mise en patrimoine problématique en Martinique et nouvelles archives numériques des cultures antillaises	47
Ralph Ludwig Perspectives for Linguistic and Philological Research in the ‘French’ and ‘Romance’ Caribbean	61
Ariel Camejo Vento Saberes en tensión: de la “frontera imperial” a los “bordes coloniales”	69
Graciela Salto Las literaturas del Caribe en y desde el Cono Sur: tendencias actuales en investigación	77
Ineke Phaf-Rheinberger The Caribbean: Linguistic Sensibilities, Fluid Geographies, and Modern Slavery	91

Annika McPherson
Postcolonial Critique and Decolonial Desires in Caribbean Studies 105

Julia Borst et Kettly Mars
« J’ai beaucoup d’espoir » : conversation avec l’écrivaine haïtienne
Kettly Mars sur son roman Je suis vivant (2015) 117

Esther Figueroa
Limbo. A Novel about Jamaica (Reading by the Author) 131

II. Arts and Visual Studies 133

Christoph Singler
FRAMING — Arts visuels des Caraïbes : plaidoyer pour sortir des cadres disciplinaires 135

Leon Wainwright
Materialities and Mobilities: A Note on the Political Geography of Contemporary Caribbean Art 143

Carlo A. Célius
Art et anthropologie : perspectives à partir d’Haïti 159

David Frohnapfel
Anticipations of Alterity: The Production of Contemporary Haitian
Art through Inter-klas Encounters 171

Emiel Martens
The History of Film and Tourism in Jamaica 193

III. Environment and Sustainability 217

Nicholas Watts
FRAMING — Applying the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences: The Value of Disciplinary Promiscuity for Practical Governance 219

Christian Werthmann
Learning from Canaan, Haiti’s Third Largest City (?) Born in the Aftermath of a Catastrophe 231

Johannes Bohle Sustainable Urban Planning? Reflections on Bon Air and Trénelle-Citron	245
Esther Figueroa Environmental Justice in Jamaica: Documentation, Dissent, and Protest ...	255
Anabelle Contreras Castro Nuevas construcciones de territorialidad e identidad en el Caribe Sur: reimaginar la identidad y la territorialidad desde el Foro Caribe Sur	267
Claudia Rauhut Caribbean Leaders in the Transnational Struggle for Slavery Reparations ...	281
Daniel Graziadei Donne Decolonized: The Sinking of the Island of Conviviality into the Mare Tenebrosum	297
IV. Migration and Knowledge Circulation	317
Martha Zapata Galindo FRAMING — Migración, diáspora y circulación de conocimientos	319
Catherine Krull and Jean Stubbs Through a Diasporic or Transnational Lens? Post-'89 Cuban Mobility and Migration in Canada and Western Europe	329
Sinah Kloß Staying in Touch: Used Clothes and the Role of Materiality in Transnational Guyanese Gift Exchange	351
Alla Klimenkowa Identifying Kréyòl and Criollo in the Contemporary French Caribbean and Spanish America	367
Gudrun Rath Zombi Narratives: Transatlantic Circulations	385

V. Negotiating History: Entangled Histories and Memories 397

Alejandro E. Gómez

FRAMING — Historias Entrelazadas y Representaciones Sociales 399

Sibylle Fischer

Mapping Caribbean Intellectual History: The Conspiracies of Juan
Bautista Picornell 403

Ulrike Schmieder

Periódicos afrocubanos: la Independencia y el distanciamiento de la élite afrocubana de Haití, África y la esclavitud 423

Juliane Tauchnitz

Tendances escapistes et les limites de la Créolité dans L’empreinte à Crusoé de Patrick Chamoiseau 443

Kathleen Gyssels

“A la rubrique de chiens crevés”: Léon-Gontran Damas Facing Memory Wars in Posthumous Poetry 457

Adriana López-Labourdette

Memorias del vestigio: trabajos mnemónicos de la esclavitud en la exposición Quinto mundo de Douglas Pérez y la novela Fe en disfraz
de Mayra Santos Febres 471

On the Contributors 491